6 Furlongs Dirt

#6 Call You Tomorrow 2/1

Seems like a good betting race if you like maidens and I will be taking a shot with not the favourite again but a decent price which is #6 CALL YOU TOMORROW. Getting better and better with every start he has had and did pretty well with coming in 2nd off that layoff he had. The trainer/jockey has worked well in the last 14 days and having a perfect record of 2-2-0-0. Early speed is always a threat and this colt out of Archarcharch seems like he could possibly take off and win easily here. Fits well with the track bias on running style and post. Big chance here!
